Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20—Relative to Leyte Landing Commemoration Day.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 20, as amended, Yee. Leyte Landing Commemoration Day.

This measure would designate October 20, 2013, and each 20th day of October thereafter, as Leyte Landing Commemoration Day in recognition of the significance of the Leyte landing in liberating the Philippines from Japanese occupation, helping to establish the independence of the Philippines, and fostering closer ties between the Philippines and the United States.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, The Leyte Gulf Landing on October 20, 1944, led 2 by General Douglas MacArthur that commenced on the eastern 3 Philippine island of Leyte is remembered as the liberation of the 4 Philippines during World War II; and

5 WHEREAS, After General MacArthur had been evacuated from 6 the Philippines in March 1942, all of its islands fell under the 7 Japanese occupation from mid-1942 until mid-1944, which was 8 harsh, accompanied by atrocities, and with large numbers of 9 Filipinos pressed into slave labor; and

10 WHEREAS, When General Douglas MacArthur was ordered 11 to leave he had already established a strong rapport with the 12 Filipino people and the guerillas; he vowed, “I shall return” to 13 liberate them and the fulfillment of his promise is the reason that 14 General MacArthur was declared a hero; and

15 WHEREAS, During the war the efforts of Filipino and American 16 defenders during the Battle of Bataan were widely covered by the 17 press, as were the actions of the 100th Infantry and the 442nd
18 Infantry, including the 1951 film “Go for Broke!” portraying their 19 endeavors; and

20 WHEREAS, By contrast, the activities of the Filipino Infantry
21 Regiment and its sister units were largely unpublicized and it was 22 not until the documentaries “Unsung Heroes” and “An Untold 23 Triumph” that any significant visual media covered the history of 24 the regiment; and

25 WHEREAS, During the American reconquest of the Philippines,
26 the Filipino guerrillas began to strike openly against Japanese
27 forces, carried out reconnaissance activities ahead of the advancing 28 regular troops, and took their places in battle beside the advancing 29 American divisions; and

30 WHEREAS, One of the outcomes of the Leyte liberation was 31 the arrival of GI war brides coming home from the Philippines
32 after World War II to the United States, thus enlarging the growth
33 of a new generation of first and second generation Filipino 34 American-born offspring in the United States, a new milestone in 35 the population growth of Filipinos in the United States; now,
36 therefore, be it

37 Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly
38 thereof concurring, That October 20, 2013, and each 20th day of 39 October hereafter, is hereby designated and commemorated as 40 Leyte Landing Commemoration Day; and be it further

- 1 Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of
- 2 this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
